PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE
Mary Belle McCorkle led the Pledge of Allegiance.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION
Roger Pfeuffer asked for a moment of silence to remember two students who were killed in accidents during the previous two weeks – Ebonee Moody, a Hohokam student, and Jeremy Baker, a former Palo Verde High Magnet School student; and Carlos Valencia, not a TUSD student but recognized as a “citizen of the city” who died of leukemia.

Roger Pfeuffer also congratulated Bill Ball and the Transportation Department on receiving a grant from Caterpillar and the Environmental Protection Agency for $75,000 to retrofit 75 school buses for better air quality.

Also commended were five schools – Tucson High Magnet School, Utterback Middle Magnet School, Safford Middle Magnet School, Booth-Fickett Magnet School, and Howenstine High Magnet School, along with their staffs and Dr. Barbara Benton and Dr. Betsy Bounds for being successful in TUSD being awarded a nearly $10 million Federal Magnet Schools Grant to be used over the next three years to focus on an increase in math achievement for the first four schools mentioned, and a student service learning focus for Howenstine.

Roger Pfeuffer then recognized Dr. Judith Knight, TUSD’s Chief Business Officer, for being awarded a Registered School Business Administrator Certificate by the Association of School Business Officials International, as an acknowledgment of excellence in the field.

CALL TO THE AUDIENCE
Paul Karlowicz – Expressed hope for continuing a relationship of collaboration and collegiality and for enhancing it during the coming year. Thanked Roger Pfeuffer for bringing a sense of stability to the district. Specifically mentioned enforcement of the 301 Implemental Plan, collaboration on the various TEA/TUSD task forces, setting up a joint legislative lobbying team, and the Shared Decision Making and School Council policies; he thanked Norma Johnson, Policy Coordinator, for her work on the policies.

Mitch Dorson – Discussed his children’s experience in Borton and Carrillo as rationale for keeping small neighborhood schools open and promoting diversity.

James Archer – Former TUSD employee and AFSCME member who spoke regarding delays by TUSD in the hearing of his third level grievance and his formal appeal of termination.
ITEM

Jeannette Haas – As a member of the interview panel for the Director of African American Studies, encouraged the board to strongly review the recommendations made by the panel.

The following persons submitted cards but did not appear when their names were called: Linda Hatfield, Rosalva Meza and Greg Azarian.
