Adelita Grijalva reminded everyone that the Mexican American Studies (MAS) program that TUSD had was found to be illegal by the Courts and the Unitary Status Plan (USP) requires Culturally Relevant Courses. Furthermore, nowhere in the Court Order does it say that TUSD is allowed to break State laws; this information has been clearly repeated. Kristel Foster indicated she was not on the Board and did not vote for school closures and that she is proud that the district has repurposed schools and of the decisions previous leadership made.
