ITEM ACTION

SPECIAL MEETING CALLED TO ORDER – 12:15 p.m.

DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. Welcome – Joel Ireland and Rob Draper

Joel Ireland convened the meeting and Michael Duran welcomed those present to the meeting.

2. Discussion on Program Audit – Bruce Burke and Michael Duran

Bruce Burke distributed copies of the Request for Proposal and Addendum and reviewed the history of the RFP, the scope of services and the level of TUSD management to be audited (ref. pp. 16-19). He indicated three proposals have been received; up to $250,000 has been authorized to pay for the audit; a committee is reviewing the proposals (Bruce Burke, Roger Pfeuffer, John Pedicone, Rudy Flores and Jaimie Leopold); recommendation to the Board at the October 23rd meeting; objective is to have the study completed with a report to the Board by March 2008, early enough for the next fiscal year and available for the next superintendent.

Persons commenting and/or asking questions and providing information were: Jaime Leopold, John Pedicone, Judy Burns, Rob Draper, Rudy Flores, Rick Myers and Bruce Burke.

Topics included:
- BRC former reports (TUBAC, Signs & Signals, ROI)
- Board’s interest in performing such a program audit at a significant expense
- expectation of credibility by outside evaluator with suggested actions prioritized
- expectation of implementation
- cooperation of personnel with provisions for employee protection for whistleblowers
- zero-based budgeting and the methods for implementing
- existence of a qualified vendor with expertise and experience to cover wide range of areas (best practices expected)

3. Discussion on Audit Committee – Alex Rodriguez and Michael Duran (12:40 p.m.)

In Alex Rodriguez’s absence, Michael Duran read Alex’s report as submitted. Loretta Peto, a member of the Audit Committee,

- Board authority to direct study of an issue and report will be addressed in the Charter
- Audit Committee provides a reporting mechanism to persons for problems
- Legislative action might be needed to adjust Open Meeting Law to permit Audit Committees to meet in Executive Session

4. Discussion on Superintendent Search – Joel Ireland and Michael Duran (1:05 p.m.)

Joel Ireland reviewed the process for selecting the Consultant to conduct the search – Arizona School Boards Association, John Gordon, Director of Leadership Development. ASBA’s Qualities Assessment tool was an important factor in the selection. Joel described the timeline for gathering information to develop the profile to be used in posting the position, screening and interviewing candidates, visits to finalists’ current work sites, and opportunities for the public to see the finalists. Goal is to name the new Superintendent in March 2008, who will work as a consultant to transition with the current Superintendent until beginning work July 1, 2008.
4. Discussion on Superintendent Search (continued)

Persons commenting and/or asking questions and providing information were: Judy Burns, Rick Myers, Bruce Burke, Michael Duran, Larry Aldrich, Earl Mendenhall
