TITLE: Funding Instructional Priorities: Part I

ITEM #: 6

Information:

Study: X

Action:

PURPOSE:

This study item is the first in a series of three presentations designed to formally present to the Governing Board, community members, and the Tucson Unified community the Superintendent's recommended instructional priorities for the Tucson Unified School District for the 2018-2019 school year and these specific priorities' budgetary impact.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

This first presentation will focus on pursuing a 7th period day for academically struggling schools for the purpose of providing job embedded professional development and during the day support services for students and the expansion of access to wireless devices to 1st-3rd grade classrooms for the purpose of supporting K-3 literacy across the district and for equalizing access to technology to all schools. Research justifying each instructional priority serving as a highly effective instructional strategy utilized by highly successful schools and districts will also be cited.
