PURPOSE:

The purpose of this informational item is to provide the Governing Board and the general public an overview of the current state of available funding for public schools in the state of Arizona.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

The presentation will focus on a short history of the state's current per pupil funding formula and a timeline of major events and legislation that have both positively and negatively impacted funding for public education in the state of Arizona.

Lastly, the presentation will compare public school funding capacities of other similarly populated states across the nation with Arizona.

Public school funding advocate and expert Sarah Richardson of Save Our Schools will serve as the guest speaker.
