

MEETING OF: January 30, 2018

TITLE: Approval of New and Historical Tucson Unified School District Courses for Grades K-12

ITEM #: 11

Information:

Study:

Action: X

PURPOSE:

To request Governing Board approval of new and historical Tucson Unified School District courses for grades K-12.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

As a proactive effort, the departments of Curriculum and Instruction, Advanced Learning Experiences, Career and Technical Education, and Secondary School Leadership, conducted an internal audit of all TUSD courses. The audit was performed to ensure all courses met requirements established in ARS 15-722a. The result of the audit led to the attached list of courses needing Governing Board approval.

An additional outcome of the audit is the attached updated course approval flow chart. The flow chart provides a guideline for future administrators and teachers to following when proposing new courses. All new courses will go to the Governing Board for approval prior to the issuance fo a course code.

Mr. Dan Erickson, Director of Advanced Learning Experiences; Mr. Matt Munger, Director of Seconday School Leadership; and Mr. Charles McCollum, Director of Career and Technical Education will be present to address questions by the Governing Board
