PURPOSE:

This informational item will update and inform the Governing Board, parents, and community members of the specific protocol adhered to by schools during emergency situations and the role that TUSD School Safety plays in ensuring that each school maintains a highly effective system for crisis and emergency management and adheres to district expectations with regard to maintaining safe and secure campuses.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

This presentation will provide the Governing Board, parents, and community members detailed information regarding lockdown procedures invoked in schools during emergency situations, the frequency in which emergency lockdown drills and evacuations are practiced, the frequency in which TUSD School Safety checks and maintains vital communications equipment to ensure functionality during emergencies, the process used by TUSD School Safety to monitor and assess school crisis and emergency response readiness, and a new process implemented in the Tucson Unified School District to conduct threat assessments on a range of incidents to determine specific level of threat and needed response on a per incident basis.

Dr. Trujillo and Mr. Jeff Coleman will be available to answer questions.
