Ideas we are reviewing:

- Researched and compared mission, vision and purpose of the following in relationship to C.E. Rose and the LEAP Academy model (attached table of information):
 - Higher Ground – currently leasing space at Wakefield
 - Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools – The Academies of Nashville
- Reviewed the book - Getting It Done: Leading Academic Success in Unexpected Schools by Karin Chenoweth and Christina Theokas:
 - Principals committed to:
 - Setting direction
 - Developing people
 - Developing the organization
 - To combat injustice in schools, justice-minded principals have to combat four patterns of injustice in our schools
 - Strategies to combat these school injustices
 - Twenty-one responsibilities and their correlations with student academic achievement (pg. 58) Source: Robert Marzano, Timothy Waters, and Brian McNulty, School Leadership That Works: From Research to Results (Alexandria, VA: Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, 2005), 42-43
 - Core responsibilities and practices for principals: (pg. 63)

Next Steps:

- Meet, de-brief and gather information on LEAP Academy Plan with C.E. Rose staff
- Review SLT suggestions to ensure all have been addressed in LEAP Plan
- Gather feed back on LEAP Academy Plan draft from staff team
- Review LEAP Academy plan with Steve Holmes
