PURPOSE:

To award the line item bid for single service disposable products for school food service use.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

IFB 19-20-19 has been executed for the purpose of procuring single service disposable food service supplies to support the Food Services Program in the District for fiscal year 18/19. Specifications were prepared by Food Service procurement staff. Food Services staff and the District Purchasing Department reviewed the bid responses and are making the recommendations for award.

This bid is being awarded by line item. A determination has been made to award to multiple vendors for this bid to meet the varying needs of the using department, shipping requirements, while awarding to the vendor with the lowest cost that meets the bid specifications.

The bid is effective upon award and good for up to one year, through June 30, 2019. Expenditures under this bid are estimated at $620,000. Food Service funds are budgeted for the expenditures on these single service disposable products for FY 18/19.

An executive summary that further summarizes the bid process and recommendations for award is attached for your review. A bid comparison is also attached for your review.

The evaluation process was conducted in accordance with AZ Administrative Code R7-2-1031 - Bid Evaluation and Award.

Kevin Startt, Director of Purchasing/Food Services, will be present to answer questions regarding the need for this product and the procurement process.
