Action: X

PURPOSE:

Affirm the proclamation the governing board approved on December 9, 2014, that January and August of every year will be observed as Student Safety Awareness Months in Tucson Unified School District.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

To bring awareness to all members of the community the importance of observing traffic laws and speed limits in school zones and crosswalks near schools to ensure the safety of students. This is especially critical in August and January when students are returning to school after summer vacation and winter break.

The attached proclamation describes reasons and conditions requiring special vigilance where student safety is concerned.
