Dear Ms. Billings:

I am pleased to confirm that Qatar Foundation International (QFI) has approved a grant in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in support of training to develop, teach, and evaluate 4 IB/MYP Arabic units at Safford K-8 Tuscon Unified School District (Safford).

This letter and its attachments specify the terms and conditions of accepting our grant. The attachments are:

- Attachment 1 – General Grant Terms, Conditions, and Understandings
- Attachment 2 – Approved Budget
- Attachment 3 -Reporting Requirements
- Attachment 4– Requirements for Grant Modifications

Please read all the terms and conditions carefully, and, if you are in agreement with the description and terms of the grant, please sign below, retain one copy for your records, and return the original to QFI as soon as possible.

By signing this agreement, you warrant that (1) you understand and agree with the description and terms of the grant and (2) your organization is currently a tax-exempt public charity, not a private foundation.

Your grant will be made in one lump sum payment of $25,000 after the receipt of the countersigned agreement. Only a final report will be required with the acceptance of this grant.

Description of Grant: The grant is meant to support the teacher salary as detailed in your approved budget (Attachment 2). Grants may not be used for any other purpose without QFI's written agreement.

Responsibility for the Grant: Safford shall be fully responsible, liable, and accountable for all sums received under this grant. Safford is fully responsible for any and all tax consequences of this award. Safford shall exercise the same care in the administration of the grant as it exercises in the administration of its own funds, giving due regard to economy and efficiency. QFI expects Safford to follow its established policies and procedures, as long as they are not inconsistent with any other clause in this agreement. Safford' financial records must record all receipts and expenditures of grant funds separately from other funds.

Reporting Schedule: Only a final narrative and financial report are required with this grant due 30 days after the conclusion of the grantee's fiscal year.

Published Materials: One copy of each publication produced in connection with this grant including books, video, newsletters, CDs, press releases, journal and newspaper articles, advertisements, announcements, promotions, and conference proceedings, should be sent to QFI.

Grant Contact: Please direct all reports and inquiries pertaining to the management of this grant to:

e-mail: lwilson@qfi.org

Again, congratulations to you, your teachers, and staff on your hard work and well-deserved grant.

Sincerely,

Maggie Mitchell Salem
Executive Director

This agreement is to be signed by the head of Safford or an official authorized to sign on behalf of the organization and by the project director of the organization to signify that both agree with the terms and conditions specified above and in the attachments to this letter. If the project director is authorized to sign on behalf of the organization, the same person may sign in both capacities.

ATTACHMENT 1: GENERAL GRANT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND UNDERSTANDINGS

In addition to the specific terms and conditions in the grant award letter dated June 4, 2012, to which these General Grant Terms, Conditions, and Understandings are attached, Qatar Foundation International (the Foundation) is awarding this grant to the Grantee contingent upon the following:

Copyright: The Foundation, through its employees or consultants and without using the Grantee's leadership training materials or other Grantee information including, without limitation, ideas, documents, records, writing, drawings, plans, programs, know-how, processes, designs and data (collectively, "Grantee's Proprietary Information"), may develop ideas, works of authorship, documents, records, proposals, writings, drawings, plans, schematics, computer software or programs, know-how, processes, designs, and data (collectively, "Inventions") which relate to the project funded by the grant, including without limitation a "toolkit" used to collect and disseminate lessons learned from the implementation, evaluation, or any other aspect of the program. The Foundation shall own the Inventions and shall be deemed the author or creator thereof; provided, however, the Grantee (or the Grantee's consultants/employees (collectively, the "Grantee's Agents") if so determined by the Grantee) shall own and shall be deemed the author or creator of any teaching materials or lesson plans and any materials developed by Grantee or incorporating Grantee's Proprietary Information or other Grantee information including, without limitation, ideas, documents, records, writing, drawings, plans, programs, know-how, processes, designs and data (collectively, the "Grantee Teaching Materials") created under this program. For the Foundation's purposes, the Foundation retains a royalty-free, nonexclusive, and irrevocable license to use, reproduce, or publish, the Grantee Teaching Materials developed in connection with this Project. Edits or adaptations of the Grantee Teaching Materials developed in connection with this project and related solely to Arabic language and culture may be prepared by or for the Foundation under the aforementioned license in order to facilitate dissemination for the Foundation's purposes. The Grantee shall cause any of the Grantee's Agents with an ownership interest in the Grantee Teaching Materials to acknowledge in writing the Foundation's right to a royalty-free, nonexclusive and irrevocable license with respect to the Grantee Teaching Materials as stated herein.

Expenditure of Funds: This grant (together with any income earned upon investment of grant funds) is made for the purpose outlined in the grant award letter and may not be expended for any other purpose without the Foundation's prior written approval.

If the grant is intended to support a specific project or to provide general support for a specific period, any portion of the grant unexpended at the completion of the project or the end of the grant period shall be returned immediately to the Foundation.

The Grantee may not expend any grant funds for any political or lobbying activity (including without limitation attempting to influence public opinion) or for any purpose other than one specified in section 170(c)(2)(B) of the Code.

Hold Harmless: The Grantee agrees to hold the Foundation, its officers, directors, and employees harmless from any cost, damage, claim, liability, or expenses, including attorney's fees incurred by the Foundation or any amounts claimed by any third party against the Foundation in connection with activities conducted by the Grantee under the grant-funded project.

No Assignment or Delegation: The Grantee may neither assign or transfer any of the Grantee's rights nor delegate any of the Grantee's obligations under this grant without prior written approval from the Foundation.

Procurement of Goods and Services: The Grantee shall follow procedures that ensure economical and practical procurement and encourage open and free competition. Prior to signing a subcontract for equipment or services at the cost of $5,000 or more, the Grantee agrees to provide the Foundation with documentation of how the proposed vendor was selected. Any purchased of Goods and Services under this grant, shall remain in the possession of the grantee and/or any other beneficiary of equipment named in the proposal for five years before request for disposal. Any wish to dispose of goods before the end of the five-year period must be requested by the grantee in writing and approved by QFI before it can be disposed.

Title to goods purchased under the grant shall be vested in the Grantee, except the equipment designated for other beneficiaries as requested in your proposal and budget. The Grantee and other beneficiaries of this grant agree to ensure that all equipment purchased with grant funds will be installed and maintained on the premises of the grantee and/or beneficiary's institution. In addition, the Grantee agrees to ensure that such equipment shall be used primarily for grant-supported activities and exclusively for bona fide educational purposes¹. Finally, the Grantee (and any other beneficiary) shall set up an appropriate system and provide proof of this system in order to stay in compliance with the grant. The Grantee shall adequately safeguard all assets and shall purchase insurance to protect the equipment against theft, fire, or other losses and shall ensure any beneficiaries under this grant will comply as well.

Publicity: The Grantee will allow the Foundation to review and approve, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, the text of any proposed publicity concerning this grant prior to its release. Any publicity, which the Grantee proposes must include recognition of the Foundation's financial support. The Foundation may include information regarding this grant, including the amount and purpose of the grant, photographs provided by the Grantee, the Grantee's logo or trademark, or other information or materials about the Grantee's organization and its activities, in the Foundation's periodic public reports, newsletters, and news releases news releases and on the Foundation's website and social media platforms.

Published Materials: One copy of each publication produced in connection with this grant, including books, video, newsletters, CDs, press releases, journal and newspaper articles, and conference proceedings, should be sent to QFI.

¹ Projects with specific equipment requests as identified in your proposal should always receive first priority, before equipment can be used for any other educational purpose.

QFI's Logo: Within 30 days of signing of the grant agreement, QFI's logo will be included by the Grantee on the appropriate materials listing Grantee's partners/funders, including, but not limited to, the Grantee's website.

Records and Reports: The Grantee is required to keep a record of all receipts and expenditures relating to this grant and to provide the Foundation with periodic written financial and narrative reports summarizing the project promptly following the end of the period during which the Grantee is to use all grant funds. The Foundation will also require interim reports. The Grantee's reports should describe progress in achieving the purposes of the grant and include a detailed accounting of the uses or expenditure of all grant funds. The Grantee shall also provide any other information reasonably requested by the Foundation. If the Grantee obtains any audited financial statements covering any part of the period of this grant, the Grantee shall provide a copy to the Foundation as well.

Record Retention and Access: The Grantee shall retain all financial records and other records pertinent to the grant, along with copies of any reports submitted to the Foundation, for no less than four years after submission of final financial and narrative reports.

The Foundation or any of the Foundation's duly authorized representatives, with five days written notice, shall have access during regular business hours to any pertinent books, documents, papers, and records of the Grantee for the purpose of making such financial audits, verifications, or program evaluations as the Foundation deems necessary or appropriate concerning this grant award.

Required Notification: The Grantee is required to provide the Foundation with immediate written notification of: (1) the commencement of any audit of the Grantee's tax-exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service or any state agency; (2) any changes in the Grantee's organization's tax-exempt status; (3) the Grantee's inability to expend the grant for the purposes described in the grant award letter; or (4) any expenditure from this grant made for any purpose other than those for which the grant was intended.

Right to Modify or Revoke: The Foundation reserves the right to discontinue, modify or withhold any payments to be made under this grant award if, in the Foundation's reasonable discretion, such action is necessary: (1) because the Grantee has not fully complied with the terms and conditions of this grant; (2) to protect the purpose and objectives of the grant or any other charitable activities of the Foundation; (3) to comply with the requirements of any law or regulation applicable to the Grantee, the Foundation, or this grant; or (4) for any other reason. In addition, the Foundation reserves the right upon written notice to Grantee to require that Grantee refund all or a portion of the grant proceeds within 60 days of the notice if the Foundation determines, in its reasonable discretion, that such refund is required (1) because the Grantee used the grant funds for any purpose other than that allowed under the grant documentation or (2) to comply with requirements of any law or regulation applicable to the Grantee or the Foundation.

The Foundation also reserves the right to terminate support in the event the grantee institution changes its legal structure or the project director or financial officer. The Grantee agrees to notify

- 7) Were any programmatic or administrative problems encountered? If so, describe their effect. How were they addressed?
- 8) If a communications plan was a component of the grant, describe the dissemination activities, their impact, and how the impact was measured.
- 9) Assuming the activities will continue, describe the steps undertaken to insure the sustainability of the work.

ATTACHMENT 3: REQUIREMENTS FOR GRANT MODIFICATIONS

Note: Permission to substantially modify grants will be granted only if requested in writing and in advance.

Request to Revise the Budget

A revised budget must be requested when transfers among line items amount to more than ten percent of the amount budgeted for any line item or when line items are added or deleted from the original approved budget.

All budget revision requests must:

- Be signed by the financial officer responsible for the grant
- Include an itemized revised budget compared to the original (or most recently approved revision)
- Include a written budget narrative justifying the changes.

Request to Modify Activities and Products

Transfers among line items of the approved budget are permitted within a limit of no more than ten percent of the amount budgeted for each line item. The adjustments shall not result in an increase in the total amount of the grant.

Requests to make substantive changes to the goals and products noted in the grant agreement must include a rationale for the changes. It may be necessary to include a request to revise the budget depending on the extent of the proposed modifications.

Carryover and Extension Requests

If it appears that grant funds will remain unspent when a grant expires, the grantee institution may request that the funds be carried over to a renewal grant. If the grant will not be renewed, the grantee may request a no-cost extension of the duration of the grant to a specific date when all funds will be spent and the activities completed.

Carryover requests must:

- Explain why funds will remain unspent when the grant expires
- Include a financial report that notes the projected or actual amount of unspent grant funds
- Include an itemized budget that indicates how the unspent funds will be allocated in the renewal grant and a written budget narrative justifying the changes.

No-Cost Extension Requests must:

- Propose a new ending date for the grant
- Explain why more time is needed to complete the project
- Propose a new ending date for the grant
- Explain why more time is needed to complete the project
- Include a financial report that compares projected expenditures to the original or most recently approved line item budget for the use of QFI funds
- Include a revised itemized budget for the extension period and a written budget narrative justifying the changes.

Request to Transfer Grant from Original Grantee Institution to Another Institution

A request to transfer a grant must include:

- An explanation of why the transfer is needed
- A specific date when the proposed transfer would occur
- Financial and progress reports from the original grantee (accounting to the day of the proposed transfer) that note the amount of unspent grant funds that will be transferred
- A letter from the head of the original grantee institution, or other official authorized to sign on behalf of the grantee institution, relinquishing the grant
- A letter from the head of the new grantee institution, or other official authorized to sign on behalf of the new grantee institution, accepting the grant
- Tax status verification from the new institution
- C.V. and contact information for the new project director
- Contact information for the new project administrator/ financial officer
- Payment instructions for the new grantee institution
- Any other information requested by the Foundation

Request to Change the Project Director

The request to change the project director must include:

- An explanation of why the change has been proposed
- C.V. and contact information for the new project director

All requested grant modifications must be approved in writing by the Foundation before the modifications become effective.
