Action: X

PURPOSE:

The book "Women Who Live in Coffee Shops" by Stella Page Duarte, is a selection requested by teachers to support the literature program in English classes, grade 11.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

11th Grade Mexican America Literature introduces students to ancient legends and oral histories that form the foundation of contemporary Mexican American fiction. Duarte's book illustrates the way contemporary writers use ancient stories as metaphors for social concerns that affect modern society. The author is an award-winning writer from Arizona and a professor at Arizona State University.

Mr. Salvador Gabalodon, Director of Culturally Relevant Pedagogy will be present to answer questions or concerns.
