TITLE: Approval of Adoption: K-12 Online Curriculum

ITEM #: 10

Information:

Study:

Action: X

PURPOSE:

To request TUSD Governing Board approval to adopt online curriculum

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

Adoption 14-13 was issued to adopt grades K-12 virtual instructional materials that support Common Core State Standards and that cover all content areas. Online curriculum will be used to provide content for full time online students, credit recovery, and credit acceleration. Approval of this request will support reduced dropout rates, increased graduation rates, differentiation of instruction and increased school ratings.

Award is recommended for the following; General Curriculum- K12 Virtual School, Edmentum, and Edgenuity. Specific Content needs- Advanced Academics and Pearson. World Languages- Auralog, Inc and Rosetta Stone. A multi-award is deemed in the best interest of the District in order to provide a sufficient number of vendors to meet to varies needs of online instructional materials.

Superintendent Goals supported by this Adoption are achievement and student enrollment.

Stuart Baker, Coordinator of Distant Learning will be at the Board Meeting to present and answer questions regarding the content of the adoption. Kevin Startt, Director of Purchasing will be at the Board Meeting to answer questions regarding the procurement process.
