

MEETING OF: October 3, 2017

TITLE: University High School Responding to the Board's Charge of May 23

ITEM #: 3

Information:

Study: X

Action: X

PURPOSE:

To give the UHS administration and site council the opportunity to present the report requested by the Board, within (as nearly as possible) the original October 1 deadline; and to consider appropriate next steps.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

The charge of May 23 stated:

"[The Board requests] that the administration and site council of University High School provide a report on the feasibility of implementing the Board's 2012 direction to give UHS a dedicated site and to create a co-located high standards middle school that has no admissions test... The Board requests this report, if possible by October 1.

In preparing the report, UHS should seek input from the (interim) superintendent, secondary leadership, and relevant departments in Central administration, who should in turn respond to UHS's reasonable requests for information..."
