Action: X

PURPOSE:

To request Governing Board approval to accept $6,000 from the United Way to support implementation of a United Way After School Prosperity Center at Pueblo Magnet High School from July 1, 2012 to May 31, 2013.

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

After School Prosperity Centers provide bundled financial services, such as free tax preparation, benefits screenings, bank accounts, financial education and other asset building activities for students and their families at locations they frequent every day such as school or a community youth center to minimize transportation and other barriers to participation.

The After School Prosperity Center Grant will enable Pueblo Magnet High School (PMHS) to offer services to students and parents beyond the school day. Along with other activities offered under the 21st century grant, PMHS will offer its students classes in credit recovery in Freshmen Algebra and English, enrichment activities in health and wellness that include cooking, gardening, and fitness classes.
