PURPOSE:

To update the Board on the PHIL 101 Course and to request direction.

---

DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

The resulting research regarding the origin and current status of PHIL 101 has revealed that the course never went to the board for approval. With regard to this situation, please note the following:

Though our team has ensured that the course has been aligned to state and district standards for the issuance of ECON credit, it remains a non-board approved courses.

As per our board policy at this time we are not able to issue ECON credit for a non-board approved course.

Board direction is needed. The Board may wish to consider its options for a temporary approval for the spring semester or its direction to discontinue the course for the spring semester.
