

PPEL 101 – Ethics, Economy & Entrepreneurship

December 11, 2018

PPEL 101 - Review

- December 17, 2015 – Course Code issued in Mojave.
- Fall, 2017 – Questions arise regarding the course.
  - Is the course Board approved?
  - Is the course for Economics or Elective Credit?
- Secondary Leadership and Advanced Learning Experiences initiate an audit of all courses.

Course Audit Results

- ▶ PHIL 101, now PPEL 101, and other courses are unapproved and have students enrolled in them. Curriculum & Instruction Department compiles the list and bring to the Governing Board.
- ▶ January 30, 2018 – Governing Board approves courses.
- ▶ January 30, 2018 – Governing Board also approves new Course Approval Flowchart. New Flowchart does not allow a course code to be issued before the course is Board approved.

Course Audit Results

- PHIL 101 Resolution passed by Tucson Unified Governing Board granting credit for students enrolled in PHIL 101 for 2016-17 and 2017-18 School Year.
  - PHIL 101/PPEL 101 not offered in 2018-19.

PPEL Course Request

- The Curriculum & Instruction and Advanced Learning Experiences departments were asked to bring PPEL 101 to the Governing Board for consideration as a High School Elective Course.
- Students who successfully complete the course are eligible to receive credit for the course from The University of Arizona.
- Surrounding districts offering this course include
  - Amphitheater, Sahuarita, and Vail
