

 Tucson, Arizona GOVERNING BOARD POLICY	POLICY TITLE: Naming Facilities and Parts of Facilities
	POLICY CODE: FF

In naming or renaming facilities, the District will consider names derived from significant geographic locations, historical events, or events of community significance, as well as worthy individuals who have made unique contributions to the District.

In this policy, the word facility refers to any new or existing building, administration building, gymnasium, stadium, athletic field, playground, or a part of a building or site.

The Governing Board has final authority to approve naming facilities and parts of facilities.

When a school or facility is sold or closed, the Governing Board reserves the right to retire the name, and reserves the right to preserve the name for future buildings.
